

Brief Arty Encounter

DT14: Bugis

Ephemeral

Patrick Chia

“Working within the opportunities and constraints afforded by the space, Ephemeral invites commuters to experience the work over time during their daily journeys.”

- Patrick Chia

About the Artwork

He artist aims to engage each commuter at his or her own short encounter with the artwork. Some notice and understand immediately, others experience it differently at each encounter and some may take it in only at a subconscious level.

About the Artist

Patrick Chia is a designer whose works aim to engage the human spirit at both a conscious and sub-conscious level through object, space and experience. He is interested in both the visceral power of design and also the methods and process of the practice.

